

Our Values

'Supporting adults with learning disabilities to live active and fulfilling lives'

We take responsibility for our own communication and reflect on its results.

Communicating with others...

We promote proactive and positive communication with service users, their families and support networks.

We strive to operate an organisation where communication is clear and comprehensible for everyone in the company where everyone is up to date and has the resources available to enable this.

Demonstrating dignity, privacy, understanding, diplomacy, openness, integrity and honesty

Respecting company policy and agreed ways of working

Supporting your team

Showing respect...

We respect our service users who are our customer and their network of support

Helping others

Being enthusiastic

Being accountable

Delivering quality

Focusing on detail

Being flexible

Having courage and resilience...

Being resilient and professional particularly when things go wrong

Being positive

Being resourceful

Meeting deadlines